INTERNATIONAL SUPPLIER CENTER ISC

AN EXCLUSIVE MARKETPLACE FOR THE SUPPLIER INDUSTRY

ILA Berlin is the most innovative trade event in the aerospace industry and offers an ideal platform for all players – from highly specialized small companies to global industry leaders. Present your products and services at ILA Berlin, establish contacts with partners for new projects as well as with important stakeholders and get informed in the various program offerings.

The International Supplier Center ISC is integrated into ILA Berlin as the perfect marketplace for the supplier industry. In one dedicated hall, all companies from the aerospace supply industry from all over the world will present their latest innovations and establish contacts with potential customers and partners.
